

BATHURST 24 Hour Race

On the weekend of November 16/17th, the first ever 24 hour race was run on the Mount Panorama circuit in Bathurst. There had been 24 hour races before in Australia, the last being at the Mount Druitt circuit in 1954, but this was the first to be run as an International race.

At 4pm on Saturday afternoon, the traditional Le Mans starting time, 36 cars took off behind the Safety Car to complete the first lap before being let loose and 24 hours later, at 4 pm on Sunday afternoon, 25 crossed the line to be classified as finishers. In addition to the main race, the weekend also saw support races for HQ Kingswoods, V8 Brutes and the 2Hour Showroom Showdown for GT Production cars.

Although there were only starters in 5 of the classes there were, in fact 10 different categories available for competitors to chose from.

- Group 1      FIA N-GT, British GTO, All Japan GT, Nations Cup(Group 1)
- Group 2      Porsche Super Cup(2002 regulations)
